Course Number:	BUAD 345
Course Title:	CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
Credits:	3

Calendar Description:

NotesClass Policy and Participation

Your participation in class requires regular [face-to-face or online] attendance, as this course is not available by distance education. Students are expected to read the chapters and complete the assigned work prior to coming to class. Participation will be evaluated throughout the term.

Students must work in teams to complete the project. The major project requires advanced reading and secondary research. Team membership and project topics must be approved by the professor before proceeding.

The professor may progress quickly or slowly through the assigned chapters, depending upon complexity, discussion, current issues, guest speakers, etc.

Exams

Students must receive at least 50 percent of available marks on the individual exams in order to pass the course. (Meaning: 27.5+ points out of 55 points available for the Midterm and Final exams.)

Project

The Consumer Behaviour Project involves a team of students researching how a consumer product (goods or services) needs to be focused towards a specific target market. Teamwork will include selecting and clearly defining the target market, selecting one specific product (or product line) for a local company, and then determining the best way a business can present
